GRADUATION IN TUTU RURAL TRAINING CENTER

On the 9th of December 49 young farmers in the Tutu Rural Training Centre were graduated in the presence of the Fiji Minister of Agriculture and Environment, Hon Dr Mahendra Reddy, Fr Provincial, Setefano Mataele sm, the Director of Tutu, Fr Petero Matairatu sm, board members, family of the graduands, Tutu Staff and supporters. In his guest of honor speech the Hon Ministers reminded the young farmers, "You're now equipped with a new body of knowledge, skillsets, enthusiasm, energy and vision to go back to your areas, and villages and contribute to the development of the community, grow, and in the process contribute to national development." In the graduating student's speech, Kositatino Bulavakarua thanked both Tutu and the government of Fiji who has and is continuing to be the main financial support for Tutu's operation. The young farmers who graduated came from the three provinces of Cakaudrove, Bua and Macuata. They graduated with a detailed 5 year plan to help them in the development of their farming ventures.
